Special vacancy Shamanna, a Brahmin candidate could not be appointed in a special vacancy

The Deputy Commissioner therefore now recommends that if absorption of this official in superior service is sanctioned it will be effected either in a direct recruitment 'general' or a promotional vacancy In my opinion, neither in a direct recruitment general vacancy nor in promotional vacancy can such absorption take place for the following reasons

As already stated above, promotions from inferior to superior services are not permissible, nor can a direct recruitment 'general' vacancy be utilised for the absorption of an official without being filled up after advertisement as per rules The only way left open for Shamanna, under the circumstances, is to apply for a general vacancy when advertised and take his chance along with others

May I add, in this connection, that the appointment of Shamanna as a Bill Collector during 1936-37 in a special vacancy was irregular? Equally so was his appointment as a clerk during 1928-29 as it was not in accordance with the rules of recruitment that were in force prior to 1934

SIR

With reference to your No L 7955 M L 85-43-2 dated 3-2-44, I have the honour to state that the short term vacancy in which G K Shamanna was appointed to act as Bill Collector in 1936 and 1937 was Registered and classified as special vacancy and filled up according to Rules The appointment of Shamanna as clerk from 1925 to 1929 was not according to Central Recruitment Board Rules as the existing Recruitment Rules was introduced only in 1934 The post of Octroi dafedar has been treated as inferior service and the vacancy in which he is proposed to be promoted has been subsequently classified as direct recruitment special one If the Government are pleased to sanction the proposal to absorb the official in the superior service, it will be done in a general or a promotional vacancy

With reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No. A 957/43 dated 15th July recommending that Sh. [illegible] on Ocean Daffodar may be appointed to the vacancy of a Book Collector in the Fil. Office, Port Blair, I am directed to state that as the present post is held by a Ministerial Officer belonging to the Subordinate Service, he cannot under the rules, be promoted to a vacancy in Superior Service. Moreover, the vacancy in which Sh. [illegible] was proposed to be appointed has been subsequently classed as a "Reserved" Special Vacancy, Sh. [illegible] being a Black [illegible] cannot be appointed to [illegible]

This test of absorption of Clerical in Superior Service is somewhat, not will be effected either in direct, recruitment general' also promotion vacancy, is not acceptable because ~~Neither in a direct recruitment~~ ~~general vacancy nor in promotion~~
~~vacancy can such absorption take place~~
~~for~~ the following reasons -

As already stated above, promotion from the inferior to Superior Services are not permissible nor can a direct 'recruitment general' vacancy be utilised for the absorption of Clerical Establishment being filled up after advertisement as per rules. The only way left open for Shamanna may in the circumstances, be to apply for a general vacancy when advertised, and take his chance along with others.

Also observe
I am also, in this connection that the appointment of Shamanna as Asst Collector during 1936-37 in a Special vacancy was unique Equally so was his appointment as a clerk during 1928-29 as it was not in accordance with the Rules of Recruitment that were in force
